Crofty Multi Academy Trust

Treloweth Primary School celebrated on Monday as the Crofty schools completed their conversion to academy. Treloweth is now a part of the Crofty Multi Academy Trust and this begins a new phase in our collaboration with Illogan, Pencoys, Portreath, Rosemellin and Roskear schools.

The youngest and eldest pupils from each school joined in the celebrations and all pupils enjoyed a slice of the celebratory cake.

E. R. Reilly – Children’s Author

We were very lucky to have the children’s author, E. R. Reilly, visit us on Monday. Eammon entertained the children for over an hour with snippets from his own books and music! The children had a fantastic assembly and Eammon very kindly left thirty of his books for the children to enjoy in school. He also left the children some writing challenges to think about. So... Children:

- Can you write a story about someone who loses someone or something?
- Can you write a story about somebody who faces a dilemma?
- Write a story with Eamon on his website.
- Draw a big bowl and label the horrible things that go into it. Make up a magic story to go with it.
- Describe your dream den.
- Interview an adult about which super hero power they would have. Write a story about that.

Mr Warren looks forward to receiving the children’s written responses. Remember: choose one, not all, of the challenges!

International Schools Award

We are really proud to tell you that Treloweth has been awarded the International Schools Award, which recognises our commitment to teaching Spanish and our partnership with Spanish schools.

Year 1’s Visit to Gweek Seal Sanctuary

On Tuesday, Year 1 enjoyed a brilliant trip to Gweek Seal Sanctuary as part of this term’s topic on Polar Adventures. The children learned all about various sea creatures, saw plenty of seals and penguins and found out about the habitats each animal lives in. We’re glad they had a fantastic day!

Musical Opportunities At Treloweth

We have many musical opportunities that will be available at Treloweth in the next couple of weeks and throughout the Year. From next week there will be space available for pupils wishing to take up the guitar, keyboard, brass and singing (for guitar and brass children would need to have or hire their own instrument). Lessons will take place during the school day on a weekly basis and there are 34 lessons a year. If you child is interested, please speak to Mr Crane.
